The musical notation is written on a single staff in G major (one flat) and 4/4 time. It consists of four lines of music. The first line is the beginning of the refrain: 'All is gift and all is grace:'. The second line continues: 'joys that we treasure, sorrows we must face.'. The third line continues: 'Bless-ed the pil-grim who learns to embrace that'. The fourth line concludes the refrain: 'all is gift and all is grace.'. There is a triplet of eighth notes in the third line. The piece ends with a double bar line.

Blessed be the Lord, in whose wisdom we discover what we have to give – Anne was selfless in sharing all she had...

Blessed be the Lord, in whose courage we come to dare -- Anne was dedicated in all she did and compassionate to those she encountered...

Blessed be the Lord, in whose protection we learn to trust – Anne lived a grace-filled life both in health and in sickness...

Blessed be the Lord, in whose grace we listen to ourselves – Anne was quick to forget herself and to be attentive to the needs of others...

Final Prayer

All loving God,
we thank you for the life of Sister Anne.
As we hold this day of remembering,

we've received through her life.
We thank you, O Lord, for all the wonderful ways you've used Sister Anne to bring joy to our lives.
